Reasons for the Seasons question:
Why is it cold at this time of year in Boston?

I. Earth is farther from the Sun in January.

II. The Northern Hemisphere is farther from the Sun in January.

III. The Sun is lower in the sky and provides fewer hours of daylight in January.

IV. The Sun gives off more heat energy in January.